CONSUMER GROUP CHRISTMAS DISCO 2009!

For the end of year Consumer Group Christmas party it was decided to have a disco, and it proved to be a huge success. The bad weather, complete with pouring rain, didn't put a damper on the fantastic music and the party atmosphere. Richmond, Everitt and John (Pictured on the left) were an asset to the proceedings, taking tickets and greeting guests. Rosey and her sister Wendy from Rosewarne House (Pictured on the right) kept their feet firmly planted on the dance floor, and Arlene Olvido (Quality and Risk Manager seen with them) helped the 50 plus guests have a great time.

'I go to DX Mail to sort out Mail and I put mail into boxes and I look up the street on the board, then put it into the box'

Thanks Jessica, sounds like you have a very responsible job.
